ALL ON YOUR DOORSTEP

Leith is a buzzing port district, home to hip creatives and long-time locals. Waterfront seafood bistros and traditional pubs dot The Shore, while the Water of Leith and bustling Leith Walk link the area with the city centre.

MIMI'S BAKEHOUSE

Situated along the scenic Shore area of Leith is the award-winning bakery-café, Mimi's Bakehouse. The skilled bakery team, led by Mimi's daughter and Head Baker, Gemma Clearie, brings locals a mixture of traditional classics and creative inventions.

The Bakehouse first opened its doors in November 2010, however, Mimi's is a product of family history and a collection of guarded family recipes. The successful bakery's ethos is great bakes made with time, love and passion, without any preservatives.

Visit and try the delicious array of tasty treats, from vibrant rainbow cakes and tantalising Malteser slices to unique Jammy Dodger tray bakes – there is something for everyone at Mimi's.

If you're looking for something a little bigger to satisfy your hunger, 'Belly Busting Breakfasts' and 'Lavish Lunches' are also on the menu, along with the café's award-winning afternoon tea and weekend favourite, 'Beforenoon Tea'.

"AT MIMI'S, EVERYTHING IS HOMEMADE AND CUSTOMERS ALWAYS COMMENT ON THE COSY, QUIRKY NATURE OF THE CAFÉ WHICH HAS A REAL COMMUNITY VIBE."

Natalie Togher, Financial Coordinator,
Mimi's Bakehouse

THE ROYAL YACHT BRITANNIA

The Royal Yacht Britannia, which has been described as a “floating palace”, was launched from the John Brown & Company shipyard in Clydebank, Scotland, on 16 April, 1953.

For over 44 years the Royal Yacht served the Royal Family, travelling more than a million nautical miles to become one of the most famous ships in the world.

To Her Majesty The Queen, Britannia provided the perfect royal residence for glittering state visits, royal honeymoons and relaxing family holidays. For Great Britain and the Commonwealth, she was an ambassador.

Today, Britannia is a five-star visitor attraction and exclusive evening events venue in Edinburgh.

The perfect spot for a family trip, step aboard this famous ship and follow in the footsteps of royalty. Explore Britannia’s five decks with a free audio guide, available in 30 languages, as well as a children’s tour and British Sign Language tablet.

“THE HISTORIC PORT OF LEITH IS A VIBRANT AND COSMOPOLITAN COMMUNITY ON EDINBURGH’S WATERFRONT, OFFERING COUNTLESS CAFÉS, BARS AND RESTAURANTS, AS WELL AS STUNNING VIEWS ACROSS THE FIRTH OF FORTH.”

Casey Rust, Head of Marketing,
The Royal Yacht Britannia

OCEAN TERMINAL

Ocean Terminal is a unique shopping experience located on Leith's vibrant waterfront.

Regarded by many as Edinburgh's most relaxing shopping environment, it has a great mix of retail, leisure and dining options including Wagamama, Pizza Express and Zizzi, as well as street food independents Mr Nick's Greek Kitchen and Wrapchic.

Its stylish and calming ambience is supported by a mix of coffee bars, a 24-hour gym, a 12-screen Vue cinema, The Royal Yacht Britannia, a skate park and soft play.

Visit and explore over 60 stores – from hidden gems to big brands – all under one roof.

“WITH SUCH A VARIETY OF SHOPS, RESTAURANTS AND LEISURE FACILITIES, OCEAN TERMINAL IS ONE OF THE CITY'S MOST POPULAR DESTINATIONS – WITH SOMETHING TO SUIT EVERY TASTE.”

Michelle MacLeod, Deputy Centre Manager

CHOP HOUSE LEITH

Chop House doesn't have a "philosophy" when it comes to cooking, but they understand that great quality ingredients, cooked simply and well, enjoyed in good company is a perfect mix.

The first of three to open in Edinburgh, Leith's Chop House brings a unique blend of bar and butchery, using the very best British beef cooked over an open-flame on a custom designed charcoal grill.

The former cork warehouse on Constitution Street boasts a modern design, and a menu of tasty starters, moreish sides and truly decadent desserts to treat your taste buds.

Chop House Leith is the ideal spot outside the city centre to enjoy the best steak in Edinburgh.

"IT'S CLEAR HOW MUCH CUSTOMERS APPRECIATE OUR KNOWLEDGEABLE STAFF. THERE IS MORE TO STEAK THAN JUST THE CUT AND OUR PHILOSOPHY HAS HELPED TO MAKE CHOP HOUSE THE GO-TO STEAKHOUSE IN LEITH."

Disa Clementsson, Assistant Manager,
Chop House Leith

LEITH

A VERY POPULAR PORT OF CALL

Just two miles from the city centre, you can immerse yourself in everything this sought-after neighbourhood has to offer, from inviting shops and award-winning restaurants to independent cafés and bars.

One of Scotland's largest shopping and leisure centres, Ocean Terminal boasts all your favourite high street names, together with eateries, a beauty spa, gym, soft play centre and cinema. The Royal Yacht Britannia is permanently moored here and nearby Victoria Quay is home to the administrative office for the Scottish Government.

Meanwhile, The Shore is full of stylish bars and bistros, traditional pubs and high-end restaurants. These include Fishers in Leith, The Roseleaf and The Ship on The Shore, as well as Michelin-starred names like The Kitchin and Martin Wishart.

You can discover Leith's dockland past through notable historic buildings, as well as admire a variety of statues and contemporary sculptures. Or simply take time out to explore the open surroundings of Leith Links and Portobello beach nearby.

Waterfront Plaza enjoys direct links to the Water of Leith Walkway and within a short distance, families will also find a range of schools*, such as Victoria Primary School, Trinity Primary School, Leith Academy and Trinity Academy.

*Owning a home in a school's catchment area does not guarantee a place at the school. Please consult the local authority for details.

DESIRABLE AND ACCESSIBLE

Getting around Edinburgh is a breeze thanks to Leith's central location just north of the city centre. Waverley station is around two miles away, with fast, frequent trains taking you across the country. Lothian Buses provides regular services to the city centre, The Gyle Centre, Hermiston park-and-ride, Ingliston park-and-ride, Edinburgh Airport and other routes nationwide.

It's easy by car too, with the A199 leading along the coast towards Portobello and the A1, giving you direct access to the City of Edinburgh Bypass, while the A902 and A90 lead you towards the M9 motorway and beyond. The National Cycle Network is also opposite Waterfront Plaza, offering direct links to Granton Waterfront and the city centre via the Water of Leith Walkway.

What's more, with the planned extension of Edinburgh's tram network to Leith and Newhaven, commuting will soon be even better, whichever mode of transport you choose.
